

FULL SAIL
UNIVERSITY

DPW Class Policies

What to expect in this class

Design Patterns for Web Programming
Web Design & Development Bachelor of Science Degree

Instructor Info

Who?

○ Course Director: Rebecca Carroll

- EMAIL: rcarroll@fillsail.com
- AIM: fsrccarroll@aim.com
- OFFICE HOURS: Online (check calendar)
In Person (By request)

○ Lab Specialist: Chris Allison

- EMAIL: callison@fillsail.com
- AIM: callison5@me.com

Brand New Class!

Someone's gotta be the first...

- There will be some rough spots
- Ask questions!
 - If you have a question, then chances are 5 others have the same question and aren't asking it!

Grade Breakdown

What is worth what...

- Labs/Projects - 30%
- Quizzes - 20%
- Professionalism - 10%
- Final Exam - 40%

Quizzes and Final Exam

Some things you should know...

- You can use approved notes.
 - They MUST be approved!
- No internet
- Mostly Practical
 - Final Exam will have a written/open answer portion

Assignment Submission

How to get your work graded

- Submit your work two ways:
 - Via Upload to FSO
 - Git Repository via Github.com
- You will be expected to have a minimum of 20 commits for every assignment submitted.

Academic Integrity

Don't waste your time and don't waste mine

- YOUR work must be submitted
 - Not your friends'
 - Not something you found on the net
 - Not “research”
- If this happens you will automatically fail the class, will have to pay for the retake and will probably be suspended from school (possibly expelled).
- You will be expected to explain your code at ANY given time.

In the Classroom

Don't waste your time and don't waste mine

- No Cell/Mobile Devices
- Food permitted as long as you can clean up after yourself
- Drinks should be out of sight (unless it is water)

Introductions

- Name
- Hometown
- Designer, Developer or both?
- Where do you see yourself in 10 years?
- Fav TV or Film or Game or Book
- Something you are passionate about

